ITEMS.

The rink skipped by J. Conn won the Bell trophy.

Competitions are called for in the Blackwood and Stutter prizes to be played for by rinks.

Mr. E. Bunting, brother of Mr. T. Bunting, who has been renewing old acquaintances here, returned to Regina last week.

THE MOOSOMIN BONSPIEL.

The Largest Ever Held in the Northwest.

The bonspiel at Moosomin, which commenced on Wednesday, 23rd, was the occasion of more curlers meeting than has ever taken place in any one place in Assiniboia. There were present no less than twenty-four rinks. We have not space at our command to enter into a description of the bonspiel as a whole, so will therefore content ourselves with noticing the part played by our own rinks, those of the Qu'Appelle Heather club, who, although they did not succeed in winning the Grand Challenge and Ben Hur from their doughty opponents, did the next best thing possible, won the second prize. At the same time we cannot help expressing the opinion that the best rink did not win, and that the position should have been reversed; however it is one of the contingencies connected with the slippery game, and they are not the sort to cry over spilt milk, and are determined to conquer in the future, holding out the hand of right-good fellowship to those gentlemanly erstwhile conquerors.

POINTS.

The competition among the local rinks still goes merrily on. Johnston beat Massey and Massey beat Beauchamp.

The following is a resume of the games already played:

	Johnston	Beauchamp	Carthew	Massey	Scott	MacGaul	Total
Johnston				1	1	1
Beauchamp				0
Carthew	0			1		0
Massey	0	1	0
Scott	0		1			0
MacGaul					1

An interesting curling game came off on Wednesday afternoon between two rinks of C.P.R. officers, one from Indian Head and one local. Our local representatives of the transcontinental line brought up the rear. Modesty prevents us from giving the actual score. Enough said.

VERY UNFORTUNATE.

Fred Halliday Injured in a Railway Accident.

Mr. Fred. Halliday, who for some time past has been working for His Lordship the Bishop of Qu'Appelle, when on his return journey to England, for which place he left Qu'Appelle about four weeks ago, was unlucky enough to be one of the sufferers in a railway smash-up near Halifax. Mr. Halliday's mishaps amount, as far as we can hear, to a broken arm, several cuts on the head and bruises on the body, but this is not all; he has lost all his baggage and money. Mrs. Justice Wetmore was also on the same train, and the car in which she was, was the only one that did not suffer injury.

Guatemala is now ready to make concessions to Mexico.

More About Boodling.

To the Editor THE PROGRESS.

SIR—In reply to my last the Vidette "screws his courage to the sticking point" and gives to the public the benefit of his views on the Boyd case. The article in question is on a par with the usual productions of that paper and highly characteristic of its author.

For the benefit of your readers I will quote from the Vidette, item by item, and reply as I proceed.

First item—"This writer must be a very ignorant person and partial critic. If he knew anything he would know that a preliminary hearing before a J. P. is not a trial, and further, that matters before the courts are not proper subjects for discussion in the public press." We will not split hairs as to whether this is a "hearing" or a trial, but would ask what would be the sense of the J. P's hearing the evidence and not trying the value thereof? The Regina Standard must also be very ignorant, as that respected journal not only gave this matter publicity as a news item but also based a very appropriate editorial thereon. I was most careful in taking up but one charge and that was admitted in the evidence by the receiver of the money to be true. The Vidette's fine scruples on this point must be of very recent growth. We do not remember of seeing any very abnormal developments of them when the Kearns case was sub judice.

Again, "knowing the calibre of the persons formulating and pushing these charges." What is the matter with their calibre? Speak up, Vidette, or kindly refrain in the future from such miserable insinuations.

We quote further: "We understand that two of the three charges against John Boyd were dismissed by the justices (How could they dismiss them if it were not on trial?), but this 'purist' correspondent did not have the common honesty or decency to say so." In our simplicity we never imagined that it was more creditable to be tried on three charges and committed on one, than to be pulled for but one and committed thereon. Was it also dishonest and indecent for me to omit that A. Boyd was committed on two charges, as I mentioned only one? Then we have another exhibition of extreme sensativeness on the part of this journal when it says, "We have heard also that the justices made certain remarks concerning the third charge, but we refrain from repeating them for two reasons," etc. Come off, Vidette! (To use a vulgarism.) A paper that will give admission to such false and scurrilous letters as I see in your issues from time to time, will repeat almost any rumor that will score against an opponent. You have simply nothing to tell or withhold. The third charge was A. Boyd's $70 five-mile contract, and to avoid the chance of being called "partial" again, I will submit some of the evidence:

W. Devitt sworn, in reference to certificate stating the work was performed:

Is that your signature?
No, Sir.
J. Shore sworn:
Is that your signature?
No, Sir.

There is no refutal—no attempt even to explain how these gentlemen's signatures got there. Complaint is then made in the same article for not making these arrests before the ballots were cast. While before the election the whole cry was, "this is no time to make such charges; this is an election dodge." It is difficult to please everybody, but if the Vidette will kindly name a date that will be most pleasing to his convenience, we will try and accommodate him the next time a similar occurrence takes place.

Listen again: "When we learn that it is common talk at Abernethy and neighboring settlements that no action would have been taken had either Mr. Guernsey or Mr. Motherwell been elected instead of Mr. Sutherland, we are impelled to the conclusion that the entering of these actions was merely a means of satiating or mollifying disappointed ambitions, and therefore no matter what the outcome may be, the prosecutors will not be entitled to any credit for moral rectitude." Even if the fore part of this quotation were true, would not the election of Mr. Guernsey or Mr. Motherwell be an earnest that these leakages in the public treasury would be stopped; but when water boils, by applying heat at the top, then will boodling be done away with by voting for it. It is difficult to explain a matter to those who will not understand, and for the sake of the Vidette's obtuseness we will give an illustration to show what is meant:

When Mr. Proctor was appointed postmaster, was it not an assurance to the public that the frightful irregularities of his predecessor would be discontinued?

As to the motives ascribed to me in the above extract, I will merely reply by remarking that as it is difficult for a fountain to rise above its source, so is it for a man to attribute better motives to another than he entertains himself.

As to the "credit" that is alluded to, we are not aware that any particular credit is due to men for doing their simple duty to themselves and to the country in which they live. Ordinary citizenship demands as much of all. But if there be any credit as spoken of, the public will, with difficulty, discover that portion of it that by merit falls due to the Fort Qu'Appelle Vidette. If a newspaper wilfully and deliberately pins its faith to a man (or set of men) who at the recent elections, went through the half-breed and other settlements doling out whiskey with one hand and advocating prohibition on the public platform with the other. Yea, further, a man whose many public positions of trust have been surrounded by clouds and shadows thicker than midnight darkness; then, I say, Sir, such a paper must expect to share stigma and disgrace connected therewith.

It is said that those living within earshot of Niagara become unconscious of its roar. Can it be that the Vidette's proximity to the very breeding pit of corruption has so familiarized him with these deeds that he sees and hears them not? I would gladly doubt the evidence of my own senses and believe these things to be untrue, but stern facts force themselves upon us, and it would be criminal on our part to longer shut our eyes to the true state of affairs in this district.

W. R. MOTHERWELL.

Abernethy, Jan. 30.

—The Prohibitionists intend to have candidates in the coming Dominion elections.

TWO MEN MISSING

Two Ranchers at Horse Lake Supposed to Have Perished From Exposure.

They Devour Their Dog to Appease the Pangs of Hunger.

The N.W.M.P. Doing all They Can to Discover Their Whereabouts.

Two ranchers named Goslin and Broadale, living at Horse Lake, about fifty miles north east of Fort Qu'Appelle, on or about the 14th inst., went to hunt up some stray cattle. Their prolonged absence caused considerable uneasiness among their friends, and a search was instituted, with the result that one of their camping places was found strewed with the remains of their dog, which had evidently been killed and eaten. The search was otherwise barren of results. There can be very little doubt but that the unfortunate men have perished. The N.W.M.P. are now doing everything in their power to discover their whereabouts, if still alive.

Just as we are going to press news has been received of the finding of the above parties, alive.

THE DANDY AND THE DAISY.

A Soliloquy by Two Fond Hearts.

FIRST FOND HEART.

The New Year's come and brought me joy—
It's not ice cream or candy,
But I shall see my darling boy—
I tell you he's a dandy.

And I shall see my charming Belle—
How awfully I've missed her;
I think she seems to know quite well
That I shall be her sister.

SECOND FOND HEART.

The New Year's come, my heart does whirl,
In fact, I'm almost crazy,
For I shall see my dearest girl—
I tell you she's a daisy.

She's just the girl that suits my taste;
She's a ways nicely dressed,
I'll put my arm around her waist
And she will do the rest."

And when I tell "that tale oft told,"
Which maidens love to hear,
I shall have a heart of gold
And she a husband dear.

My guiding star shall be my wife
To light me through misery,
As we go journeying on through life—
The dandy and the daisy.

Edgeley Echoes.

We are pleased to see so many correspondents for the Edgeley district, it shows that our settlers have some interest in the welfare of the country press, etc, and that they are not all for themselves. Indeed, the noteworthy improvement in the PROGRESS is enough to draw forth and interest the thickest head of any community.

We are glad to see there are some young men improving their education through the idle time of our Northwest winter. Although they are not "Germans," it does not signify that they should not learn that most useful language. We presume the new blackboards have been procured for the especial purpose of learning beginners on that subject.

The Edgeley branch of the Patrons of Industry have revived again now the Dominion election is coming on; they are probably preparing for a grand effort. Let us hope for their own sakes that the weather for Dominion poll day may be a trifle milder than it was for the municipal election. Saturday night was anything but pleasant; wind from the N.W. We have no doubt the attendances would be large, and we hope that some of the defeated candidates of bygone elections got retribution there in official honors.

The charter of the Bank of England is to be amended.

FREDERICK BELL, Manager.

THURSDAY, JAN. 31, 1895.

MANAGEMENT OF THE TERRITORIAL EXHIBITION.

With astonishment we read in Saturday's Evening News Bulletin that Mr. J. K. Strachan, who recently resigned (?) the position of secretary-treasurer of the Winnipeg Industrial Exhibition, has received a letter from His Honor Governor Mackintosh, informing him of his selection as manager of the North-west Territories Exhibition, which is to be inaugurated this year at Regina. Without entering into the question of Mr. Strachan's fitness for the position, which we may be pardoned for saying is an open question, we protest against the practice of selecting others than Northwesters for this and similar appointments, not even excepting the Lieut.-Governorship. It would be different were it that we did not have anyone capable of fulfilling the position, but when it is a well known fact that we have dozens of those just as capable as Mr. Strachan, we fail to see the justice of the appointment, and will not fail to raise our voice against this and any other such appointment. To say the least, it is impolitic at any time and at the present time doubly so.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

We understand that there is a municipal by-law in existence which bears on the prevention of cruelty to animals. If so, what has become of it? Has it been lost or hidden away in some obscure corner so as to have become obsolete? It certainly appears so, otherwise the instance which was brought to our notice on Saturday last would surely not be permitted to occur. It appears that a person was driving into town, and having some hay in his jumper, a poor unfortunate cow, that to all appearances had not enjoyed a mouthful otherwise than what she could pick up surreptitiously, and espying a treat, endeavored to take advantage of it, but overrating her staying powers in endeavoring to overtake the supposed nourishing meal, collapsed on the road from sheer exhaustion. What is to be thought of those who keep cattle and absolutely starve them, trusting to the chance of their being able to pick up a sustenance on the streets, and by being a nuisance to those who are imbued with some of the principles of humanity, and provide their dumb animals with the means of subsistence. A person who starves an animal certainly should not be the possessor of one, but as there are many who are, they should by all means be prevented from ill using them. Another reprehensible action is the fastening up of horses and oxen to a post on the street for hours, sometimes all night, without any covering or anything whatever to eat, shivering in the cold, while their owners are comfortably housed. Suppose the case to be reversed, how would it be then? Is it possible that we who boast of our civilization and humanity should allow this sort of thing to continue?

It is a curious fact that Great Britain is the best customer of the United States in nearly every exportation. The statistical bureau of the treasury has just issued a most interesting document giving details of U.S. exports and imports for the year ending June 30th last. Out of a total exportation of $869,000,000, the United Kingdom took $121,000,000, or nearly half of the whole. If to the purchases of American products by the people of England, Scotland and Ireland be added the value of our exportations to other parts of the British Empire the total would be increased by $50,000,000 sold to the Dominion of Canada; $1,650,000 sold to Newfoundland; more than $8,000,000 sold to the British West Indies; more than $2,000,000 sold to British Guianas. More than $4,000,000 sold to the British East Indies; more than $8,000,000 sold to British Australasia, and by $4,000,000 sold to British Africa a total of $78,000,000 of exports to British subjects outside the United Kingdom. Only one other foreign country has bought as largely of the United States as these English dominions outside England. Germany was our second best customer with $90,000,000; France third, with $53,000,000; Canada fourth, with $50,000,000, and the Netherlands fifth, with $43,000,000.—Baltimore Journal of Commons.

The lady contributor to the Empire must take care of the prohibitionists will swoop down on her like a hawk on a chicken. She writes: "Those dreadful doctors, who are always finding out something disagreeable, have discovered that tea may cheer, but it also inebriates—ranking as an intoxicant second to alcohol. We who are the lovers are disposed to strenuously deny the statement, but I'm afraid we can't—not conscientously. Did you ever notice the effect of a cup of strong tea upon a tired woman—how it flushes her cheeks, brightens her eyes and loosens her tongue? I challenge anyone, save an expert, to detect the difference between the effects of this stimulant and that of a glass of champagne upon a nervous woman's organism. I discovered the stimulating power of a cup of green tea several years ago, and gave up the tea—that is, the green tea." To some men coffee is more stimulating than whiskey—both in moderation, that is.

For the last three or four months Mr. Davin has been pressing on the Dominion Government the necessity of giving the people seed grain. Having received a definite categorical asseveration by letter that no seed grain would be given by the Dominion, he left for Ottawa to interview the premier, and if necessary to appear before the privy council to press the matter. Never was seed grain so needed as at the present time. It is absolutely necessary that it shall be given or loaned to the settlers, and the time is passing. Therefore Mr. Davin takes the step above mentioned, and we hope when he comes back he will bring with him a solution of the problem which confronts us from west of Moose Jaw to a range east of Qu'Appelle.—Regina Leader.

The Free Press and the Tribune—the heavenly twins which continually do sing the praises of Manitoba cabinet—are as silent as a deaf and dumb asylum upon the question of responsibility of the Greenway Government for the present high freight rates. Silence is sometimes very golden.—Nor.-Wester.

M. Ribo is now entrusted with the formation of a cabinet in France.

CHURCHILL DEAD

He Passes Away at an Early Hour Last Thursday Morning

Surrounded by Members of His Family — The Body to be Buried at Woodstock.

Short Sketch of the Life of One of England's Famous Statesmen.

London, Jan. 24.—Lord Randolph Churchill died at 6.15 this morning. His death was a painless one, and he passed away in the presence of Drs. Roose and Keith, with all the members of his family grouped around his bedside.

Lord Randolph had been unconscious for thirty hours. His wife and mother remained with the dying man throughout the night. Early this morning he began sinking rapidly and at 6 o'clock Dr. Roose was summoned. Fifteen minutes later he died. The body will be buried at Woodstock. The Queen and the Prince of Wales were at once informed of Lord Randolph Churchill's death.

Lord Randolph Henry Spencer Churchill was born Feb. 13, 1849, and at a comparatively early age gained merited distinction as a member of the British House of Commons. He is the second son of the sixth Duke of Marlborough, by his second marriage with Lady Frances Acne Emily, eldest daughter of the third Marquis of Londonderry. His education was completed at Merton college, Oxford, and in 1874 he was elected to represent the Woodstock constituency in parliament, serving until 1885. Later he was defeated for Birmingham, but afterwards secured the South Paddington seat.

From 1874 to 1880 he was almost silent in the House, but from 1880 onward he made himself conspicuous in the House of Commons and on public platforms by the violence of his speeches against the Liberal party, and he was the chief member of that small section of the House known as the Fourth Party, or Tory Democracy. Lord Salisbury assuming the head of the Government in 1885, Lord Churchill was made Secretary of State for India. During his occupancy of this prominent office Burmah was annexed. After a brief interval of power Salisbury's Government gave way to the Liberals, and six months later, upon their defeat and Salisbury's return, Lord Randolph was appointed to the high office of Chancellor of the Exchequer and leader of the House of Commons. December of the same year he surprised all by resigning.

Since that time he has kept virtually out of politics. He spent six months in Africa and the Transvaal, and only recently returned from a trip round the world.

In 1874 Lord Churchill was married to Miss Jennie Jerome, daughter of Leonard Jerome, of New York. Lady Churchill is considered the brightest of Mr. Jerome's daughters, all of whom married Englishmen, one being the wife of Sir John Leslie. Lady Churchill has been of great assistance politically to her husband.

Of late years Lord Churchill's health has been on the decline. With his wife he has travelled extensively, and last year passed through Qu'Appelle, though he was unable to enjoy himself, being then an invalid, requiring medical treatment and the constant care of his wife. With the couple it was a case of mutual admiration from the time of their first meeting at a social function in Paris. Lady Churchill remarked to her sister on that occasion: "That's the brightest man I ever met, and I'm going to marry him." She kept her word.

Bismarck will visit the Emperor on the latter's birthday.

Emperor William has sent a wreath for Lord Randolph Churchill's coffin.

J. B. Grannis, president of the Tradesmen's National Bank, New York, is dead.

The favor with which the Nor'-Wester, as evidenced by the manner in which it has fairly leaped into circulation, has been received, is something almost unprecedented in the world's history of journalism.

"Independent—Not Neutral," is the motto of the Nor'-Wester. It is not the organ of any political party or business enterprise; but is a journal always free to espouse, criticise or condemn the cause or contention of any party or organization—political, commercial or otherwise—as fealty to the Northwest may, upon dispassionate and intelligent consideration, seem to demand.

At the price the Weekly Nor'-Wester is offered to new subscribers—One Dollar from any time hereafter till January 1st, 1896—but the merest fraction over the cost of the white paper used in it is asked. It is the largest Weekly paper published in Canada.

In subscribing, simply write name and post office on a piece of paper and enclose it and ONE DOLLAR in an envelope addressed

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

NERVINE TONIC

AND

STOMACH AND LIVER CURE

The Wonderful HEALTH BUILDER & NERVE FOOD

This Remedy cures Indigestion and Dyspepsia, as well as all Nervous Diseases, by acting on the Nerve Centres at the base of the brain. It has been absolutely demonstrated, that two-thirds of our diseases and ailments, are due to the deranged Nerve Centres at the base of or within the brain.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE

IS A WONDERFUL CURE FOR

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA.

Loss of Appetite, Weight and Tenderness in the Stomach, Sour Stomach, Pain in the Stomach, Wind upon the Stomach, Nausea and Sick Stomach, Sick-Headache, Hiccough, Water Brash, Heartburn, Vertigo and Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Frightful Dreams, etc.

The Stomach suffers more than any of the other organs from disease, because into it are taken so many indigestible and irritating substances as articles of food. In its great effort to digest these, it soon becomes weakened and diseased. Under such circumstances, it is not wonderful that so many complain of Indigestion and weak stomachs. When the stomach fails to digest and assimilate the food, the whole body falls into a state of weakness and decay, for Nature has decreed that the body must constantly receive nutriment through the stomach, to repair the waste of tissue constantly going on in the system.

The South American Nervine

Is probably the greatest remedy ever discovered for the cure of all Chronic Stomach troubles, because it acts through the nerve centres. It gives marked relief in ONE DAY, and very soon effects a permanent cure. The first bottle will convince anyone that a cure is certain.

WHAT EX-MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, REUBEN E. TRUAX, SAYS.

I have been for about ten years very much troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia, have tried a great many different kinds of patent medicines, and have been treated by a number of physicians and found no benefit from them. I was recommended to try SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE. I obtained a bottle, and I am now using it and very great relief, and I have since taken two more bottles, and now feel that I am entirely free from indigestion, and would cheerfully recommend all my fellow sufferers from the diseases to give SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE a fair and honest trial.

It will cure you.

A MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL SPEAKS.

Petrolea, Ont., June 27th, 1893.

To the Proprietor of South American Nervine.

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in recommending the great SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE to all who are afflicted as I have been, with nervous prostration and indigestion. I took a very great relief from the very first bottle, which was strongly recommended to me by my druggist. I also took all my wife used it, when I must say, was completely run down and was rather a very much from general debility. She found great relief from SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE, and also cheerfully recommends it to her fellow sufferers.

Sick Headache

Is dependent on deranged nerve centres and indigestion. Hence its cure must come through building up the Nervous System and curing the Stomach. SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE will absolutely cure this dreadful malady and prevent its return.

A SWIFT CURE FOR ST. VITUS'S DANCE.

Crawfordsville, Indiana.

My daughter, twelve years old, had been afflicted for several months with Chorea or St. Vitus's Dance. She was reduced to a skeleton, could not walk, could not talk, could not swallow anything but milk. I had to feed her like an infant. Doctors and neighbors gave us up. I commenced giving her the SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE TONIC, and the effects were very surprising. In three days she was free of her nervousness, and rapidly improved. Four bottles cured her completely. I feel that SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE is the best blood remedy ever discovered, and would recommend it to anyone. Mrs. W. T. Hendricks.

A Big Dollar's Worth

The Winnipeg Weekly Tribune, which is acknowledged to have—even by rival publishers—the largest circulation of any paper published in Canada west of Lake Superior, is now offering great inducements to intending subscribers. It can be obtained from now to January 1st, 1896, for $1—a very slight advance on the cost of the white paper used in its publication. At its regular price of $1 a year The Weekly Tribune is certainly extra value, and with the balance of this year free the offer becomes an extraordinary one. The fact that the Weekly Tribune reaches more homes in the North-West than any other paper published, is strong evidence that it is recognized as the great family newspaper. It publishes Dr. Talmage's sermon each week, and gives more Manitoba and North-West news from its own correspondents than all other Winnipeg papers combined. This is specially interesting to the settler, as almost every district is represented. It can be had from now to the end of next year by sending $1 to the Tribune Publishing Co., Winnipeg.

FIRES GALORE.

Winnipeg Again Visited by the Fiery Elements—Rodgers, the Furrier,

Burnt Out Thursday Morning—Loss, $20,000—On Friday Morning

The Doll Block was Gutted—Bell's Brewery, Brandon, Also Burnt.

Winnipeg, Jan. 24.—J. A. Rodgers was burned out this morning. The complete stock of his large fur store was entirely destroyed. The origin of the flames is doubtful. The loss is about $20,000, and the insurance on the stock and building $24,500.

Winnipeg, Jan. 25.—The firemen had a busy time to-day. Hardly had they got their apparatus in order after the fire in Rodgers' fur store in the morning, when at 6 o'clock they were summoned to duty by a general alarm rung from a Main street box to the most stubborn fire ever witnessed in Winnipeg, the Doll block at the corner of Main and Bannatyne streets being the scene of the blaze. It required five hours' hard fighting to get the fire under control. Among the sufferers were J. A. McKeacher, Manitoba Mortgage Co; D. H. McMillan & Co., J. F. Grundy & Co., and the New York Life Insurance Co. The loss was about $27,000.

Portage la Prairie, Jan. 26.—Bell's brewery was burnt this morning about 5 o'clock, and is a total loss. The brewery was an isolated building north of the C. P. R. and was not being worked just now, a fire being kept in the office only. It was owned by James Bell, of the Belleview hotel. The building and stock were valued by him at $15,000; insured for $6,300, of which $2,500 is in the Eastern and $2,000 in the National of Ireland. The brigade laid a line of 1,800 feet of hose in the bitter cold and saved the outbuildings and played on the burning building. The cause of the fire is unknown.

'Tis Easily Done.

Said a lady the other day, "There is no excuse for a newspaper man to make mistakes in his paper." Of course not. He has lots of spare time; nothing to do but to hunt up news, clean inking rollers, set type sweep the floor and pen short items, fold the papers, write the wrappers and make paste; and when that is done can put in idle moments mailing papers, and talk to visitors, and distribute type, carry water, bring coal and read proofs, correct mistakes, hunt the shears to write editorials, and dodge the bills or dun or condemn the delinquents, and take cussings from others, and tell our subscribers we need money, and throw out bad men who are looking for the fighting editor. Oh, its lots of fun; and then no day contains more than twenty-four hours.

Thought to be in Toronto.

Friends in Toronto of Mr. Dalton, the missing banker of Neepawa, says the Toronto World, are searching the hotel registers with a view of ascertaining if the missing man is in t is city.

Dalton disappeared suddenly a few weeks ago, and it was first thought that he had committed suicide or met with foul play. It has since transpired, however, that a number of years ago Mr. Dalton lived in England with his wife and two or three children. Illness entered the home and one after another died, until Mr. Dalton was left alone. The trouble so preyed on his mind that he became a victim of mental aberration, and, without knowing it, took passage for America. When he came to himself he was in New York, but had no knowledge of when he left England or what had transpired on the voyage. He immediately returned to the Old Country, and found his friends very anxious about him. As Mr. Dalton left his books and accounts in excellent shape at Neepawa and had enough money on him to take him on quite a trip, it is just possible that he has lost his identity again. This solution of the mystery of his disappearance would be much more consoling to his friends than the probability of his being murdered for the money he carried.

Other Edgeley Echoes.

Some of our acquaintances have just received the election news from the city of Wayburn. Mr. W. Hunt was elected Lord Mayor, and Mr. Peter Wilkens has the part of Beadle. Why a new city should go ahead so fast we should like to know, when our own town has been weathering the storm for such a length of time and as yet has received no such mark of distinction. We may be still more surprised at Wayburn in the future. A descendant of one of the old Irish kings is a resident, and as he is an arrant Home Ruler, there will probably be some strike in that direction.

Edgeley feels highly honored with the fact that one of her settlers was elected President of the agricultural society. Mr. Fraser's capabilities as a worker and hustler are widely known, and we feel confident that he will serve the society most faithfully and well, through the important events of the future.

Your correspondent was unable to note any item of interest last week, being too busily engaged in the recent elections. From the results published in last week's paper the Edgeley voters showed great preference for several of the candidates; it is evident they know the value of good men.

It may be of interest to some of your readers to hear that in the next general election in the old country the Conservative party are expected to be elected in a stronger body than they ever held before. Even Scotland is seeing the error of its ways. Look at Fifeshire.

We would also like Our Editor to correct the figures given for Mr. Jenkinson at Mr. Dale's poll, it was placed as 15, whereas the number he received was only 5. (With apologies to the Editor.)

The many friends of Mrs. Cook will be pleased to hear she is back at her post at the Edgeley Farm.

The Union.

Don't stick up your nose at an union. If the following from an exchange is true, the union should be in great odor with the public: "A physician was seen buying a bottle of onions and being asked about his purchase, said: 'I always have boiled onions for dinner for the benefit of my children. I like them myself too. They are the best medicine I know of for preventing colds. Feed onions raw, boiled or baked to the children three or four times a week and they will grow healthy and strong. No worms, no scarlatina, no diphtheria where children eat plenty of onions every day.' Another distinguished physician confirmed the foregoing statement, adding: 'Couldn't give better advice, no matter how hard I may try.'"

New French Cabinet.

Paris, Jan. 22.—H. M. Hanotaux, Lockroy, Cavaignac, Cocheryk and Doumer, and Senators Combes and DeVerninge have agreed to accept portfolios under M. Bourgeois.

London, Jan. 22.—The Standard's Paris correspondent gives the composition of the new cabinet approximately as follows: M. Bourgeous, president of the council and minister of the interior; M. Hanotaux, foreign affairs; M. Cochery, finance; M. Cavignac, war; M. Lockroy, Marine; M. Terrier, public works; M. DeVerninac, agriculture; M. Combes, public instruction; M. Doumer, commerce; Maurice Lebon, colonies; M. Leveille, justice.

At the mass chanted in Montreal for the repose of the soul of the late Sir John Thompson, the foreign consuls were not present.

THE STRIKE IS OVER.

Trolley Cars are Running on Nearly all the Lines.

Brooklyn, Jan. 25.—The big street car strike is nearly over, and the day may see the strikers declare themselves beaten and returning to work as individuals. The trolley cars are running on nearly all the lines, though not the full complement, but the great tieup has been broken. The situation has become so decent that the 9th regiment has been ordered home, and there is every likelihood that before the day is over the 7th in command of Col. Appleton, may be ordered back to-night. The soldiers will be glad to be relieved from duty.

STREET CARS MUST BE RUN.

Brooklyn, Jan. 24.—Justice Wm. J. Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, to-day decided against the companies in the mandamus proceedings. The Brooklyn Heights Company is severely scored for failing to operate its lines. Justice Gaynor declared that the entire matter is a question of wages, that the companies have not the right to suspend operations one week or one hour in order to obtain men who will work at lower wages than has been paid. He said that a railroad had the right to replace men gradually, or to discharge all the employees at one time provided they have enough men to run the line continuously. The decision defines the rights of corporations holding franchises from the people in terms that caused great rejoicing in the ranks of the strikers and among workingmen generally. Justice Gaynor sets 10 a.m., to-morrow for a hearing by both parties as to whether a pre-emptory writ of mandamus or an alternative writ shall issue. The former would require the company to operate its lines forthwith; the latter would require them to show cause why they should not be compelled to operate their lines.

Aside from this decision the day has been one of great gains for the companies, very little disorder prevailed, and a good showing on many lines was made.

District assembly No. 75 played its last card in ordering the electrical workers employed by the companies to join the motormen and conductors on strike. The order was not fully obeyed, and while it resulted in the stoppage of three lines, three others which have not been open for ten days were operated. More cars were run on other lines and the presidents declare that they have sufficient men to operate their roads.

There was no shooting to-day. The soldiers remained at their posts of duty. Troop A had several lively experiences scattering crowds who were indulging in wire-cutting and blockading the tracks. Thomas Carney, the victim of yesterday's shooting, died at the Long Island College Hospital at an early hour this morning. Col. Austen, in an official report to Gen. McLeer, says the firing in Hick's street yesterday was fully justified. Carney was the second man killed by the troops.

Unless there is a change in the situation the Seventh will be ordered home to-morrow. Order is slowly being established. Wire cutting still prevails in outlying districts and the minor disorder still continues but with less frequency. Cars are not yet running at night. No one seems anxious to take chances after dark.

Wires were cut on Third Avenue at Richards and Coffee streets in the Red Hook district, near the Erie basin, last evening. A crowd of strikers was driven away from the Fifth and Third Avenue barns shortly before midnight by Capt. Thorn and two companies of the Twenty-third regiment. At 1 a.m. all was quiet.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat—The week has been a very disastrous one to the wheat bulls. There has been a constant declining tendency, and one day after another there has been a net loss in prices, as compared with closing prices of the previous day.

Local wheat—This has been a very dull week in wheat locally. With the world's markets declining heavily, buyers would not take hold of Manitoba wheat at the high prices (comparatively speaking) ruling here. On the other hand, the wheat available being limited in quantity and in few hands, holders were inclined to maintain prices regardless of outside influences.

Flour—Locally there is no change. Sales to local trade by millers are made at $1.65 patents, and $1.50 bakers, delivered, with large lots at 5c under these figures.

Butter—Market still very dull. About 17c per lb. appears to be about as high as anything is going in dairy, and very good ots could be quoted about 16c.

Cheese—Dealers are selling at 11c per lb.

Eggs—Fresh, 18c; limed, 17c; cold limed, 12c.

Lard—We quote pure, $1.90 for 20-pound pails and $4.65 for 50 pound pails; compound at $1.75 per 20 pound pail; compound in 3 and 5 pound tins, $6 per case of 60 pounds. Pure leaf lard in 3, 5 and 10 pound tins, quoted at $6.75 per case of 60 pounds.

Poultry.—Prices are lower at 9 to 10c for turkeys dressed, per pound. Ducks, dressed, 8c. lb; geese 7 to 8c. Chickens, 5 to 7c.

Hay—Loose hay on the street market is selling at about $4 per ton; baled hay, $4 to $4.50 per ton.

Live stock—The local market is very dull for live stock. We quote cattle at from 2½ to 3c live weight; Sheep purely nominal at about 2½ to 2¾c; Hogs are being taken by packers at 3¾ to 3¾c as to quality; car lots of average quality about 3½c.—Winnipeg Commercial.

OUR LOCAL MARKET.

Wheat, 58 to 60c.; little offering. Oats, wholesale 30c., retail 40c. per bushel. Bran, 80c. per 100 lbs., $16 per ton. Flour—Hungarian, $2.25; Strong Bakers, $2 per sack of 98 lbs. Beef per side, 4½c.; joints, 10c; Pork, 4½c. per 100 lbs.; 8 to 12½c. per lb. according to choice. Mutton, 10 to 15c; per lb.; per carcase, 10c. White fish, 6c for quantities; 8c. per lb. Potatoes, 75c per bushel. Cabbage, 1½c. per lb. Onions 4 lbs. for 5c. Hay, $4 to $5 per ton. Butter, 15c. per lb. Cheese, 17c per lb Eggs 20c per doz.

Local and General

All things will come to him who waits;
But here's a rule that's slicker:
The man who goes for what he wants
Will get it all the quicker.

—Jack McCulloch won several races at the Ottawa carnival.

—Do not miss the next quadrille party if you desire a good time.

Mr A. Davidson and J. Balfour, Indian Head, were in town on Sunday.

—Mr. Lindsay, Massey-Harris General Agent, was in town on Tuesday.

—Friday, Saturday and Sunday last were so far the coldest days of the season.

—Mr. J. H. Bell, of Estevan, is in town on a visit to his brother, Mr. W. H. Bell.

—The freight rates commission hold a meeting of enquiry at Indian Head to-morrow—Friday.

—The new St. Andrews Church, Winnipeg, was opened last Sunday by Rev. Dr. Carson, of St. Paul.

—Rev. Mr Macallister will be at Bunn's Settlement, on Monday, at 2 o'clock, instead of Tuesday.

—Staff Sergeant Fyffe has been called into headquarters and his place taken here by Staff Sergeant Des Barres.

A social will be held in aid of the Presbyterian church schemes on Wednesday, Feb. 6th, at James Smith's, Edgeley Farm.

—We still have some poetic talent in our midst, as will be seen on the perusal of "The Dandy and the Daisy," in another column.

—A meeting of the South Qu'Appelle Agricultural Society was held in the Council Chamber, on Wednesday, when the date for holding the re-union was decided to be on 21st February.

—Application and practice deserves success, and sometimes a hieves it, as in the case of the Fort Qu'Appelle curlers, who defeated a picked team from this town on last Thursday.

We may live without fools, politicians and cranks;
We may live without love, we may live without thanks;
We may live without dudes and society's fads;
But where is the merchant who can live without ads? — Printer's Ink.

—The dwelling house of Jos Brennan, Broadview, was destroyed by fire on the 21st. The origin is supposed to have been from a lamp in use in a bedroom upstairs, as the fire was first discovered in the upper flat. Mrs. Brennan and one child were badly burned and fears are entertained of their recovery.

—We are in receipt to-day of a copy of a special edition of Copp, Clark and Co.'s Canadian Almanac for 1895 printed for the enterprising corporation of H. H. Warner and Co., Ltd., of London, Eng., who are now sole proprietors of "Warner's Safe Cure." It is full of valuable information and reflects credit on the publishers as well as on the enterprise of the English company.

—A photographic agent lately canvassed Rapid City, proposing to supply an enlarged crayon copy of any photographic likeness for 50 cents per picture. He afterwards sent a postcard to his subscribers informing them that he would be in the village at a certain time and bring the enlargements with him, and offered frames for them at prices ranging from $2 40 to $10. Upon receiving a refusal to buy a frame, he refused both enlargements and original photograph, and many are now bewailing their acquaintance with this enterprising individual.

—Arthur H. H. Henning, artist, of Hamilton, and one of the party who some time ago went north on an exploration trip through the Bad Lands for the purpose of preparing articles for Harper's Weekly came down from the north last night on his way home to Hamilton. Mr. Henning, while crossing a muskeg some 60 miles this side of Fort Murray, while in pursuit of the dog trains slipped and fell, injuring his back in such a manner that he had to turn back. His partner will carry through the balance of the proposed journey. —Calgary Herald.

—The merchant who curtails his advertising expenditure in order to reduce expenses, is generally successful beyond his utmost expectations, as a decrease of one hundred per cent. in the volume of business transacted frequently enables a man to reduce his expenditure at least twenty per cent.—Printer's Ink.

—Having been given to understand that quite a number of people have articles which they are willing to trade or sell, we will give them an opportunity of letting their wants be known, by inserting their notices at the following rates: 25 cents for 5 lines or under; 10 cents for every additional line or part of a line.

—The attention of those of our readers who are desirous of subscribing for a good live American paper, is directed to the advertisement in another column. We will supply the New York Morning Advertiser and the Progress for one year for $2 75. A sample of the above paper can be seen at the Progress office.

—We would draw the attention of our readers to Mr. Barron's advertisement in another column re magic lantern entertainment in the Presbyterian church. Views of the Holy Land will be exhibited; also selections of vocal and instrumental music will be given, and a good time is to be expected, judging from what we have heard.

—Mr William Walsh, who has been a resident of Montreal for the past twelve months, has just received word that he has been left heir to £20,000. Mr. Welsh is a Londoner and the money is left by an aunt who died. He was to have been married in two months to Miss Rosina Stockwell, of Montreal, but the receipt of the information has changed the date. The wedding will take place during the week and husband and wife will leave at once to look after the wealth so suddenly, if not unexpectedly, acquired.

—The Qu'Appelle curlers have returned from the Moosomin Bonspiel. Although they did not succeed in bringing home with them the Grand Challenge and Ben Hur trophies, they did the next best thing possible, if hard and constant play deserves anything, they surely deserved it. With apologies for the alteration, we append the following as applicable:

'Tis not in mortals to command success,
But we'll do more; deserve it.

The curlers are unanimous in their expression of the kindly manner in which they were received and entertained, more especially by Sheriff and Mrs. Murphy, old Qu'Appellites.

—Mr. Davin, M.P., proceeded east to Ottawa on Saturday night, to intercede with the powers that be and to explain the actual necessity that exists for the relief of the farmers by the supplying of seed grain by the Government. Mr. Davin was waited on upon the arrival of the Atlantic express by Reeve Henley and several members of the Board of Trade and Agricultural Society. A letter explaining the object of the deputation from the South Qu'Appelle Agricultural Association was read by Mr. Doolittle, secretary. Mr. Davin thanked the deputation and expressed himself as being thoroughly in sympathy with their object, and was very much pleased to meet them and receive the letter, which would be a great assistance to him. He also stated that the Government had distinctly refused to grant any more seed grain in consequence of its having come to their ears that on former occasions the grant had been abused, but that he was now on his way to Ottawa, to interview the minister of the interior, and if necessary the Privy Council in the matter, and did not despair of success.

—The first of the series of quadrille dances was held in the Town Hall, on Thursday last. On account of so many of the curlers being out of town, the attendance was not as large as it might have been—gentlemen being conspicuously few; however, about twenty-five couples were present. The music being very good and the floor likewise, all present seemed to have a very enjoyable time. Supper was served at midnight, and the dancers left for home about 2 o'clock, all tired after an enjoyable evening. The second of the series will take place on Feb. 7th, when we hope the curlers will be in town and present with their numerous country friends.

A serious accident occurred near St. John's, Que., on the Central Vermont railway bridge on Saturday.
